

PHI 334 : Exam 3 Guidelines

Internet Entrepreneurship, Employment, What is for Sale, and Political–Commercial Relations: these are the topics we have covered so far. Your third exam is on this topic. This document is an explanation, a prompt, whatever you want to call it—for your third exam.

This is what I want: a paper, about 1200 words in length, that picks an issue from the themes we covered, analyzes why it is a complication for living a good life, and gives some potential avenues for avoiding the complications.

Here is a step by step guide:

1. Review the lesson plans since your second exam.
2. In these lesson plans, pick an issue that strikes you as important: maybe organ trade, maybe an aspect of internet commerce pertaining to data, maybe some political commerce issue.
3. Explain what that issue is and what theme it belongs to.
4. Explain how that issue complicates your ability to live a good life.
5. Explain what can and cannot be done about it—in other words, explain why it is an issue beyond any one simple solution, but also say what can be done about it in your own life.
6. Explain what you yourself can do and plan to do about it.

In the course of the paper, be sure to cite the lesson plans we covered. If you have questions, email me. You have until Nov 24 to submit the paper.
